

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Preface	IX
Introduction: Western and Eastern Early Christian Art .	I
Chapter I: The Byzantine and the antique traditions during the VI, VII and VIII centuries. .	26
Chapter II: Traces of Lombard and Carolingian influences and the Decadence of the antique tradition during the IX and X centuries	81
Chapter III: The Benedictine school during the XI century and the origin of Romanesque painting .	129
Chapter IV: The Romanesque school in the XII and early XIII centuries	177
Chapter V: Byzantine mosaics on the North coast of the Adriatic, in Rome, Sicily and elsewhere. Byzantine Painting in Southern Italy . .	231
Chapter VI: Byzantine and Franciscan influences during the XIII century in Pisa, Lucca, Florence, Arezzo and Pistoia. The spread of the Franciscan crucifix	257
Chapter VII: The XIII century painters of Siena and Umbria including Fabriano	364
Chapter VIII: The evolution of the Byzantine and Romanes- que traditions in Rome during the XIII century. Important monuments of this period at Parma and in South Italy . .	417
Chapter IX: Cimabue and his school	453
Chapter X: The Byzantine style and the classic tradition in Rome at the end of the XIII century. Jacopo Torriti, Filippo Rusuti and the Cos- mati; Cavallini and his School	482
Additional Notes	548
Errata	566
Indices	567
