Table of Contents

Preface	V
Table of Contents	VII
Introduction	IX

Part I. SOME TOOLS

1. The Feynman-Kac Formula and Semigroups	3
1.1 Feynman-Kac Formula in a Classical Context	3
1.2 The Class K_d	7
1.3 Semigroups, Kernels of Semigroups	13
1.4 Quadratic Forms, Dirichlet Forms	20
1.5 Notes and References	37
2. Some Potential Theory	39
2.1 A Warm-up Calculation	39
2.2 Some Facts about Green Functions	43
2.3 Last Visit and Equilibrium Problem	51
2.4 Maximum Principle, Exceptional Sets, Variational Principle..	67
2.5 Some Connections with Dirichlet Forms	85
2.6 Notes and References	88
3. Some Principal Eigenvalue Estimates	91
3.1 General Results	91
3.2 Capacity and Principal Eigenvalues	107
A. An Inequality of Thirring and Variation	107
B. The Constant Capacity Regime	116
3.3 Some One-dimensional Estimates	121
3.4 Notes and References	135
Appendix: Brownian Bridge Measures	137

Part II. BROWNIAN MOTION AND RANDOM OBSTACLES

4. The Method of Enlargement of Obstacles	143
4.1 Orientation	143
4.2 Eigenvalue Estimates	150
4.3 Capacity and Volume Estimates	167
4.4 Principal Eigenvalues and Poissonian Obstacles	182
A. Geometric Controls	182
B. Confidence Intervals	185
C. Almost sure Behavior	191
4.5 Large-time Wiener Asymptotics	194
A. Quenched Asymptotics	196
B. Annealed Asymptotics	200
4.6 Notes and References	214
5. Lyapunov Exponents	217
5.1 Orientation	217
5.2 Quenched Lyapunov Exponents	221
5.3 Annealed Lyapunov Exponents	239
5.4 Some Large Deviation Estimates	248
5.5 Notes and References	262
6. Quenched Path Measure and Pinning Effect	265
6.1 Heuristics	265
6.2 From Weak to Strong Pinning	272
6.3 Random Scales	281
6.4 Coarse Graining of Path Space	286
A. The Forest and Clearings Picture	287
B. Excursion Systems and Coarse Graining	290
6.5 Applications	300
A. Finer Asymptotics for $S_{t,\omega}$	300
B. Pinning Effect	302
6.6 Notes and References	312
7. Overview, further Results and Problems	313
7.1 Normalizing Constants and Diagonal Behavior	313
7.2 Off-diagonal Behavior	322
7.3 Asymptotic Behavior under Weighted Path Measures	335
References	343
Index	351
